Wildlife Asso. Names Board of Directors

Fifteen Hempstead County men were elected to the Board of Directors of the Hempstead County Wildlife Association at its regular monthly meeting Thursday night, April 3, 1938, at the Hope City Hall.

By lot each newly elected director drew a one or two year term on the Board. That designation follows each name. Four directors were chosen from DeRoton Township and one director was selected from each of the other eleven townships in the county. By townships they are as follows:

Jim Griffin (2), Bodcaw; Jim Roland (1), Bois r'Arc; J. D. Boswell (2), Ernest Graham (1), R. M. Jones (1), and L. B. Tooley (2), DeRoton; Henry Burke (1), Garland; Carroll Tollett (1), Minecreek; Olan Clark (2), Nolan; O. Luck (1), Ozan; Nash Stanton (1), Saline; Garland Kidd (2), Spring Hill; J. O. Harris (1), Redland; S. E. Lee (2), Wallaceburg; and Roy Fry (1), Watercreek.

Officers of the organization are: Dub Flowers, president; Mack Duffie and Odus Harvey, vice-presidents; and Talbot Field, Jr., secretary-treasurer.

The Association unanimously passed a Resolution urging the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission to return the heavy dirt moving equipment and proceed with all possible speed toward the completion of the Bois d'Arc project, an approximate 5,000 acre state hunting and fishing area, in Hempstead County.

At the conclusion of the meeting Field stated that there were 782 members in good standing and that very likely the number will exceed 1,000 when all membership books have been turned in.

A short organizational meeting of the newly elected board of Directors was held immediately after adjournment of the Association meeting. There was a short discussion of plans for a fish fry and several projects that the organization might undertake. It was decided that the Board of Directors would hold its first business meeting next Friday night, April 11th, at 7:30 in the City Hall in Hope.

Kidnaped Baby Unharmed, Nurse Is Held

By ART UNDERWOOD
United Press Staff Correspondent
AURORA, Ill. (P)—Mrs. Mary Ann Pfeiffer, a practical nurse and a week old girl she took from the Copley Memorial Hospital nursery were found near here today.

The child was unharmed. Mrs. Pfeiffer said "I felt God intended me to have this baby."

Her husband, J. Charles Pfeiffer, 26, said as soon as we get this all straightened out we want to try to adopt a baby.

Mrs. Pfeiffer was served with a kidnap warrant.

Pfeiffer had tipped off authorities to his wife's whereabouts. She said she had spent the night with friends on Chicago's North Side. Police Chief Donald F. Curran said he arranged to meet them on U.S. 65 west of nearby Naperville and the Pfeiffers were intercepted as they drove with the baby back toward Aurora.

By ART UNDERWOOD
United Press Staff Correspondent
AURORA, Ill. (UP)—Police today pressed a search for a practical nurse suspected of kidnaping a 3-week-old girl from the Copley Hospital nursery because she was barred from adopting a child.

The kidnaped infant, who was to have been placed in a foster home today, was taken Thursday night between 10:30 and 11:30 p.m.

Police issued a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Mary Ann Pfeiffer, 44, of nearby Yorkville, a licensed practical nurse who worked at the hospital.

Authorities said Mrs. Pfeiffer telephoned a friend here about 3 a.m. and admitted she had the missing baby. Mrs. Pfeiffer told her friend she had talked it over with an attorney and the lawyer told her "everything was all right," police said.

The nurse also told her friend she was going to Chicago, but authorities doubted her story. For one thing, they said, no lawyer would tell her kidnaping was "all right."

Police told Mrs. Darlene Smith, the infant's mother, of the kidnaping. Mrs. Smith, who lives with her parents in Aurora, said she knew nothing of the abduction.

Hospital officials said the mother was separated from her husband and had signed papers making the child a ward of the Kane County Court. Authorities refused to reveal the mother's name, but said she had several other children.

Mrs. Pfeiffer is married to a 26-year-old man and has a son, Michael Cristofle, 27, Elmhurst, by a previous marriage. Cristofle could not be found immediately.

Authorities said Mrs. Pfeiffer had tried to adopt a child recently, but was refused because of her age.

El Dorado Seeks to Sell Water Bonds

LITTLE ROCK (UP)—The Arkansas Public Service Commission has set aside next Monday afternoon to hear a request by the El Dorado Water Corporation for permission to issue $175,000 in bonds for improvements to its facilities.

The request was made Thursday. The corporation said it would spend $45,000 to relieve short term notes held by banks and $30,000 to pay costs of floating the bond issue. The remainder would be spent to finance expansions to its system.

The five per cent bond issue would be retired by June, 1978.

Assessments Against KCS Are Upheld

LITTLE ROCK (UP)—The Arkansas Commerce Commission upheld Thursday the 1937 property assessments levied against Kansas City Southern Lines and its subsidiary, the Louisiana and Arkansas Railway.

The commission approved the $4,330,000 assessment against KCS, and $600,000 against the LIA.

Both railroads had claimed the assessments were unfair and not in line with property assessments in the counties where they operate. Their next recourse would be appeal to the courts.

The parent railroad already has filed in Pulaski Circuit court an appeal of assessments for 1935 and 1936, and has been paying a special interim assessment pending the end of the litigation.

KCS operates in Miller, Little Rock and St. Louis.

Probers Urge Stringent Laws to Curb FCC

WASHINGTON (UP)—House investigators today urged Congress to pass laws to apply "the most stringent standards of propriety" to the Federal Communications Commission.

In an 18-page interim report, the House subcommittee which has been investigating the FCC said it found a pattern of "questionable conduct" by FCC members and the broadcasting industry which had "undermined public confidence" in the agency.

The report recommended legislation which would:

- Require the FCC to adopt a code of ethics.
- Repeal the net permitting FCC members to accept honorariums.
- Strengthen the ban on representations to FCC members about pending matters.
- Permit the President to remove an FCC member for neglect of duty or malfeasance.

The report said testimony showed there was a practice by the broadcasting industry of providing "excessive entertainment" for the members and staff of the FCC. The subcommittee said this does "not lend itself to the establishment of a proper relationship" between the commission and the people it regulates.

The report questioned "whole sale attendance" at industry meetings by FCC members and suggested that they spend more time trying to solve industry problems.

At any rate, the subcommittee said "it felt very strongly" that the government should pay FCC members expense at any meetings they do attend.

Warning Will Cover All Storm Types

Yesterday it was explained that a general Severe Storm Forecast would not be cause for alarm to the people of this area in our new warning system.

However, should a service storm develop that affects this area, the warning system will function.

There are two types of storms that may occur that would cause a general alarm to the public.

1. Severe storms: Straight destructive winds, unusual hail damage, or in the opinion of the U.S. Weather Bureau, could develop a tornado along its path.
2. A Tornado.

In all cases, the public will be alerted and the type of storm will be described along with its location and its speed and direction.

How do we detect these storms?

In two ways.

1. A report from one of our official spotters over the county.
2. A report from the U.S. Weather Bureau indicating a severe storm headed for this area according to their spotter reports or from their radar screen. Weather Bureau stations at strategic locations now have special cloud tracking radar instruments that can not only tell speed and direction but its potentiality for developing into a destructive force.

Tomorrow — how the Storm Warning Network in Hempstead County will operate upon receipt of a storm warning will be revealed.

8 Arkansas Schools Have Integrated

By LLOYD HOLBECK
United Press Staff Correspondent
LITTLE ROCK (UPI)—Eight school systems in the state have one or more integrated classes, according to a report on file in the department of education.

The report, compiled two weeks ago, showed one other system announced plans to begin gradual integration next fall but rescinded the plan. Another system is to begin integration, but no date has been set.

The school system as Charleston was the first to integrate, the report said. It has a total of 610 pupils with 20 Negroes, and is integrated from the first through 12th grades inclusive.

Fayetteville with 3,353 white pupils and 92 Negroes is integrated in grades nine through 12 only, with a separate elementary Negro school.

Hoxie has 20 Negro students attending integrated classes in the first through 12th grades, but the number of Negroes in the mixed classes has dropped about 50 percent since integration was stated.

Education Commissioner Arnold Ford said the reason for the decrease was that many Negro families have moved from Hoxie.

Van Buren started integration on the high school level last fall with approximately 25 Negroes enrolled. The district has 91 Negroes with 2,677 white students.

Strike Enters Third Day at Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK (UPI)—A work stoppage of tile workers and painters entered its third day today, with little indication of a change.

W. H. Thomas, representative of Painters Local 124, said his union has prepared letters of agreement which any contractor could sign. He said he expected two or three contractors to agree to the wage demands today. If they do, painters will return to work on their projects.

Ernest E. Gragson, president of the tile setters section of Bricklayers Local 1 said three independent contractors had signed agreements but no meetings were scheduled with the Tile, Marble and Terrazzo Contractors Association.

The painters want a pay raise of 25 cents an hour, half of it now and the rest next April 1. The tile workers want 30 cents, 10 cents now, another 10 cents in April, 1959, and the rest in April, 1960.

will raise the North Little Rock hospital higher on its priority list for hospitals to receive federal Hill - Burton funds. Smith said some other areas ahead of North Little Rock have not raised their share of money to build hospitals.

Voters in North Little Rock have approved a $750,000 bond issue to finance the hospital in their area.

River, Sevier, Polk, Benton and Sebastian counties. LVA has properties in Columbia, Heitstead and Lafayette counties.

KCS has been paying interim taxes since 1954 on an assessed valuation of $2,000,000. The railroad says the valuation should be about $1,500,000.

Russell Morton, assessment department attorney for the commission, said the railroad owes the counties in which it operates an additional $1,900,000 assessment for 1955, $2,300,000 for 1956, and $2,750,000 for 1957. Taxes would be based on these assessment figures.

School districts and the counties in which the railroad operates would get windfalls if the courts should uphold the assessment department.

Pair Fined for Attack on Manager

LITTLE ROCK (UP)— Cecil Hill and Harold R. Dunaway were fined a total of $800 plus $27 court costs in Little Rock Municipal court today on charges growing out of their recent attack on City Manager Dean I. Dauley.

Both men entered pleas of innocent when their cases came up for trial.

Judge Harry Robinson found Hill guilty on charges of assault and battery and fined him $200 plus $9 court costs. The court of its own volition added a charge of disturbing the peace against the operator of an amusement company, and fined him an additional $300 plus $9 court costs.

Dunaway, who accompanied Hill to Dauley's office where the assault took place, was originally charged with assault and battery. The judge changed the charge to disturbing the peace, and fined him $800 plus $9 court costs. The disturbing the peace charge carries a heavier fine than assault and battery.

Both men paid their fines.

A number of witnesses gave testimony at the morning trial.

Hill and Dunaway had posted bonds of $500 each after the Pulaski County grand jury had indicted them Wednesday.

DOROTHY DIX

Juliet's Jolted, as Romeo Reforms

Dear Dorothy Dix: Before our marriage a year ago, my husband was a regular Romeo, always paying compliments, giving me little but oh so welcome attentions, always thinking of my welfare. He's changed terribly since our wedding day. Now he seldom even notices how I arrange my hair, if I have on a new dress or use a new perfume. He takes everything for granted. I'm sure our marriage is going on the rocks. How can I salvage it?

Dear Worried: Learn a simple truth you should have mastered long ago; don't nurse a little grievance until you turn it into a big problem. That's what you're doing now. You're piqued because your husband isn't paying you all the flattery your vanity craves. He would probably think you absurd if he knew you were worrying about his "change" in character. After all, he'd be sure to say, "I work hard to support you, come home to spend every evening with you. What more do you want?"

Please bear in mind that there is one technique for courtship, another for marriage. Some men successfully combine the two, but most men are only too happy to trade the trappings of the chase for the comfortable satisfaction of victory. Your marriage isn't headed for any rocks. It is a safe, sound haven for your husband; make it the same for yourself by fighting these asinine doubts.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm 18 year old and intend to marry for money. I have no one in mind but would like to know how to go about meeting someone, and how to make sure he has plenty of money.

Dear C. C.: I advise people how to stay married, not to make romantic comedy marriages. You have a very slim chance of meeting the man of your dollar sign, and I'm afraid I can't wish you luck.

Dear Dorothy Dix: A dear friend, a widow, is to be married soon. She already has a beautiful home, completely furnished, and there is little one can give her for a wedding present. Would you have any suggestions for me. Financially, I'm not in her class.

MRS. J. D.

Dear J. D.: You live in a city with fine department stores. Ask for the shopper, or gift consultant at any of them; she will show you new items so lovely that they'd find a place in any home, no matter how completely furnished. Any gift chosen with loving care receives a warm welcome.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm a girl of 16 who has broken off with her first true love. He was very jealous and sometimes mean. Mother objected to him, but father thought he was all right. Mom has finally consented to let me write him (he's in the Army) as long as I keep my letters friendly. Do you think he still loves me?

Dear Mattie: Mother was right the first time and she shouldn't have given in so easily. A jealous, mean boy is certainly no friend for a 16 year old. Don't begin this correspondence.

Send your problem to Dorothy Dix. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her in care of this newspaper.

The office announced the project Wednesday.

Record of Traffic Arrests in L. R.
LITTLE ROCK (UP)—A record of traffic arrests were made in March, according to records of the police department traffic bureau.

The bureau listed 2,097 persons arrested for traffic violations other than overtime parking. The total in February was 1,336 and in March last year 1,153.

Police Chief Gene Smith said the reason for the record was that the traffic and criminal divisions were consolidated in the month and the former criminal division were paying more attention to traffic.

Batista Is Confident

In an exclusive interview with the United Press at the presidential palace, Batista said that contrary to the impressions Castro may have given the outside world, "the rebel movement and their pro-Soviet and Communist activities" will not succeed in Cuba.

Police Lt. Robert D. Dunn said Mrs. Pfeiffer's husband, J. Charles, told authorities he was "completely puzzled" by his wife's disappearance. He said he knew she had been "longing for a child for some time."

A state-wide alert was issued for Mrs. Pfeiffer, who was described as being short, stocky, and cropped dark hair. She was believed to be driving a 1950 blue Cadillac.

Fair Weather for Easter Is Predicted

LITTLE ROCK (UP)— It probably will not be necessary for kindly to add an umbrella to her Easter ensemble Sunday.

And the temperatures, said the United States Weather Bureau today, should range between 60 and 70 degrees — just about right for the Easter parade.

The Weather Bureau will not guarantee its prediction, but if past records are of any value, it won't rain. Not much, anyway.

In fact, the bureau said it has rather only 10 times out of the last 24 Easters. And of the 10 wet Easters, only two registered more than an inch of precipitation. Three other rainy days had only a trace.

The largest amount of rain was April 1, 1945. Almost 2 1/2 inches descended on the luckless Easter paraders.

And how about temperatures for Sunday?

There have been times when it's gotten downright summery. In 1934, the mercury rose to 85 degrees. But by the same token, Arkansas has had chilly Easters too.

What Happened to Donn Moomaw?

By UNITED PRESS

Donn Moomaw, center for UCLA's 1952 football team, was a wingback in high school and much sought after as one of the best prep backs in the nation. But at UCLA his speed and mobility were put to use in the center of the line and he became an immediate success, winning sectional honors as a sophomore. In 1932, as a senior, he was named United Press All-American and "Linebacker of the Year" as well.

Whatever happened to Donn Moomaw today, only 25, Donn is a Presbyterian minister at Berkeley, Calif.

Gavilan, Tiger Jones Fight Tonight

United Press Sports Editor

PHILADELPHIA (UP) — Former welterweight champion Kid Gavilan, looking for gold now that the glory is gone, hoped to use Ralph (Tiger) Jones as a springboard to richer purses in their 10-round "rubber" match tonight.

Although Jones gained a split decision over the Cuban from Camaguey in their previous meeting, Feb. 19, the odds are 6-5 on a take-your-choice basis for the nationally televised bout. Gavilan, 32, won his first encounter with the 30-year-old Tiger from Yonkers, N. Y., in 1933.

Gavilan, promised a reward bout with welterweight contender Garret (Sugar) Hart here, drifted 75 rounds in preparation for Jones, a wily, slippery type of battler known for his "Speller" roles.

Jones, fighting professionally since 1930, has had 70 bouts. He has won 45, including 11 knockouts, and lost 21, with four draws. Gavilan has been victorious in 104 bouts, with 27 of them knockouts. He has lost 29 decisions, been held even six times and engaged in one no-contest. Never stopped, the Cuban has been dropped only three times in his career and got up to beat two of the men who felled him.

Big Money Player Not on Masters List

TODAY'S SPORTS

(Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.)

By TOM PRICE

United Press Sports Writer

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UP) — The name of Harold Sargent doesn't appear on the entry list for the Masters golf tournament here, and chances are he hasn't held a club in his hand all week. But he came here as the biggest "money player" of them all.

His duties as president of the Professional Golfers Association interrupted what started as one of the most pleasant events of his life.

Sargent, pro at the home course of the great Bobby Jones, East Lake in Atlanta, was still flushing from tributes paid him at a testimonial dinner there Monday night when he received word that the biggest pot of golfing gold had lost its rainbow. George May of Chicago had decided to stop sponsoring the Tam O'Shanter tournaments and their $210,000 in annual prizes.

Keeps Pot Full

As PGA chief, it's one of Sargent's jobs to keep the pot full, and that sort of cash isn't to be picked up at every tournament stop. Even though Sargent himself hasn't played tournament golf for 20 years — nearly half his life — scores of his fellow pros depend on it.

"It was a surprise to us," was all Sargent could say of May's action until he could get together with the PGA Tournament Committee after the first round of Masters play. They hoped to find some way of replacing the lost prizes.

The Tam O'Shanter crisis is the first serious one to face Sargent since he took over the PGA presidency last November, following by 30 years his own father, whom he also succeeded as East Lake professional.

His father, George Sargent, the U.S. Open champion in 1908, headed the PGA in 1921-26, and went to East Lake at the call of Bobby Jones in 1932. Harold moved into the pro shop with his dad, and moved into the job, he retired in 1947.

Harold was never much of a tournament player. He wanted to learn golf from his father, and pass on what he had learned to students. He was interested in running a golf course the way his father taught him. It should be done, and in seeing to it that professionals all over the country kept high standards.

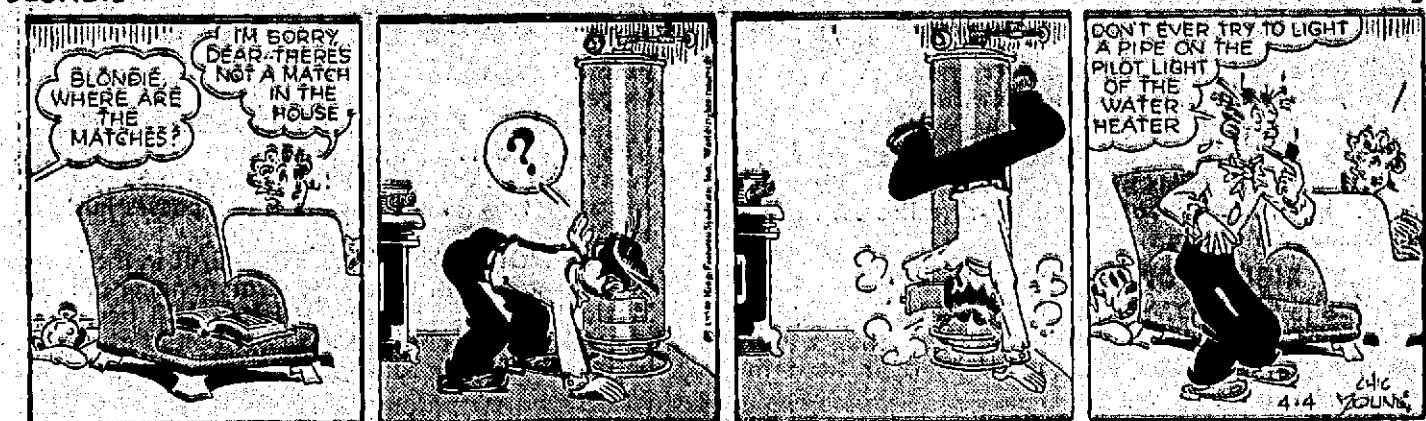

Eight Years Teaching
His fame as a teacher spread beyond Atlanta and Sargent spent eight years on the PGA's Teaching Committee, then was boosted to position as the golfers' top golfer.

His father, now 76, was a proud guest of honor at the testimonial dinner to Harold Monday night. Bobby Jones was a pro at Atlanta's exclusive Peachtree Golf Club, and brother Alfred was pro at Inverness in Topeka, Ohio, before his death.

As Bobby Jones, ailing and unable to attend the dinner, put it in a telegram to the gathering: "With the coming of the Sargents to East Lake, the club's troubles in the matter of a golf professional were ended. After George retired, we had Harold, and if Harold can give to his daughter

New Pictures of Little River, Locale of Millwood Dam

THE OMNIBUS FLOOD CONTROL BILL authorizing big Millwood and several smaller dams upstream having passed the congress and gone to President Eisenhower there is a vital new interest today in Little River.

A "MILLWOOD BREAKFAST" will headline the annual Red River Valley Association convention at 7:30 a. m. Tuesday, April 8, in the Lake Room of Captain Shreve Hotel. Shreveport.

HERE IS THE LITTLE RIVER STORY in pictures made last summer by A. H. Washburn, editor and publisher of Hope Star —

MILLWOOD DAM SITE as spotted on the map by the Corps of Engineers. The proposed dam bisects Beard Lake, on the Hempstead County side of Little River, and strikes the Little River County side at a point close to Ward's abandoned ferry, or the demolished CCC bridge — about two airline miles north of the Red Bluff station on the Frisco railroad.

THIS IS RED BLUFF ON THE RIVER — several miles south of the actual site on the Little River County shore, but typical of the terrain. At the actual site the bluff is somewhat back from the river and can't be photographed, due to the heavy undergrowth.

THIS IS LITTLE RIVER, boating and fishing paradise for 35 miles above Allen's Ferry (near Fulton) at all stages, and for 50 miles when the water is slightly above normal. In the speedboat ahead at 40 miles an hour is Herbert Dodson of Hope.

AT RIGHT, TOP TO BOTTOM:

THIS IS FABLED WHITE CLIFFS — on the east side of the river 50 miles upstream from the Allen's Ferry launching point. It can be reached by boat from the Fulton area whenever the river is slightly above normal stage.

LANDING AN ALLIGATOR-GAR in the lower end of Little River is L. B. Toolay, general manager of Hope Radio Station KXAR. This one weighed 120 pounds, snorted like a lion, and charged the boat before giving up — to be towed ashore and shot.
